

Disclosure Policy

Canadians have the right to know why, how and where we invest their Canada Pension Plan money, who makes the investment decisions, what assets are owned on their behalf, and how the investments are performing.

Consequently, we are committed to pro-actively disclosing comprehensive and timely information about our investment activities, primarily through our web site, so that Canadians can understand how we are helping to keep the Canada Pension Plan promise.

Our timely disclosure of important developments is also made through news wire services. Examples are our quarterly and annual financial results, new investments, new partner-like relationships, executive appointments, and notice of public meetings.

We do not disclose information regarding investments under consideration or not completed, and we respect third-party confidentiality agreements. We comply with federal and provincial laws and regulations regarding such matters as privacy.
